

BEEKEEPING CLASSES

May 23-24, 2017 in HAWI at Kohala Village HUB Barn

BEGINNING BEEKEEPING & BEE BIOLOGY

Tuesday, May 23, 5-8 pm

PowerPoint lecture

This workshop covers honey bee biology, history of beekeeping in Hawaii, IPM techniques to control pests & diseases, and hands-on hive management techniques.

HONEY BEE HEALTH: PESTS & DISEASES

Wed., May 24, 8:30-11:30 am

PowerPoint lecture

Take your beekeeping to the next level. This workshop focuses on learning what makes a bee colony healthy and how to identify and take action on the pests & diseases that may be present.

COMBINED APIARY DAY

Wednesday, May 24, 12:30-2:30 pm

Hands-on experience in the Apiary must attend lecture session

Additional Information

Classes are taught by Hawaii Dept. of Agriculture's Apiary Program at Kohala Village HUB Barn, 55-514 Hawi Rd., Hawi, HI 96719

Cost to attend is $15 per lecture (includes apiary session), or $20 for both classes.

Must RSVP to noelani.waters@hawaii.gov, or call (808) 339-1977 by May 19.